

56 Cotham Road, Bristol, BS6 6DW

£1,700 Per Month

Perfectly positioned in one of Bristol's most sought-after locations, this beautifully presented two-bedroom apartment offers the ideal blend of period character and contemporary living. Just a short walk from the University of Bristol, Bristol Royal Infirmary, Whiteladies Road, Gloucester Road and the city centre, it's an exceptional home for professional sharers or postgraduate students.

The apartment features two generous double bedrooms, a spacious and light-filled living room, a modern kitchen/diner ideal for entertaining, and a luxurious contemporary bathroom. Original period features add charm and character, while gas central heating and double glazing provide year-round comfort and efficiency. Properties of this quality in such a prime location are always in high demand. Early viewing is highly recommended.

- Beautifully presented two-bedroom apartment
- Early viewing is highly recommended

